Do you fancy working for an Academy where Your Character Counts? Where you can unleash your creativity to provide modern and engaging learning experiences? Then join the team at Kingswood Secondary Academy.

This post would suit a primary trained teacher due to our need for someone who can lead on teaching numeracy and literacy to Year 7 students joining the academy that qualify for the catch-up premium.

About you:

You will;

- engage and enthuse our learners through a commitment to outstanding teaching and learning
- contribute to the further development of a strong and forward looking team
- be innovative in their techniques to motivate and inspire young people
- build positive relationships with staff, pupils and parents alike.

About us:

The Kingswood Secondary Academy, part of the Greenwood Academies Trust (GAT), is situated in Corby and hosts exceptional teaching facilities, including innovatively designed ICT suites and purpose built laboratories. The academy is led by an inspirational Principal, Andrew Burton, who is committed and dedicated to securing achievement for all pupils and has high expectations of pupils.

In return:

You can be assured that you will be joining a Multi Academy Trust that is dedicated to valuing and developing the workforce through ensuring a fair workload and offering access to bespoke CPD from the Learning Alliance to enhance professional growth.

If this sounds like your ideal first teaching post or your next career move then we want to hear from you.

Visits are warmly welcomed. Please contact Joanna March, PA to the Principal, on 01536 741857 or email jmarch@kingswoodsecondaryacademy.org to arrange a mutually convenient appointment.
